The Marshall Brannon FLAVA 2010 Award Excellence in Foreign Language Teaching, Post-Secondary

The post-secondary teaching award recognizes a foreign language educator who has demonstrated excellence in foreign language education and who may be forwarded as the FLAVA candidate to either the SCOLT or NECTFL Teacher of the Year (TOY) competition perhaps eventually to the ACTFL TOY competition.

Criteria for Selection (see rubrics below)

1. The nominee must be a current FLAVA member. Additionally, membership and participation in either SCOLT or NECTFL or both is highly desirable.
2. Nominee shall be a full-time foreign language educator who spends at least fifty-percent (50%) time in direct teaching during 2010-2011 in a post-secondary institution and who expects continued direct teaching during the next three (3) years at this level.
3. Nominee's contributions to foreign language teaching must demonstrate a positive impact on teaching and learning.
4. The nominator must submit evidence of excellence in teaching, including three to five supporting letters, at least one from each of the following constituencies: a current or recent student; a professional colleague; a supervisor.
5. A 500 word first-person statement on the value of learning language and culture.

With the regional competition in mind, it is recommended that:

- The nominee in concert with the nominator fill out the linked competencies checklist (http://www.flavaweb/files/FLAVA_Awards_CkList2010.pdf);
- Although a teaching portfolio is not expected for this nomination process, the nominee should be willing to create one, starting with the documentation collected in this very process.

Procedures for the Nominator

1. Any colleague may nominate an individual but both the nominator and the nominee must be aware that the candidate may eventually attain the ACTFL TOY status with its incumbent duties as the ACTFL-sponsored Ambassador for Foreign Languages for the 2011-2012 academic year.
2. The following items must be included in the nominating packet or email with attachments in order.
 - FLAVA Awards Cover Sheet.
 - Nominating cover letter signed by the nominator or by email clearly showing the nominator's institutional address with attached letter.
 - Letter of recommendation from a professional colleague.
 - Letter of recommendation from a supervisor.
 - Letter of recommendation from a current or former student.
 - Curriculum Vitae of no more than five (5) pages.
 - Five-hundred-word (500) first-person statement on the value of learning language and culture.
 - Statement of willingness to participate in all required activities associated with the award (form is available on ACTFL website at <http://www.actfl.org>) including:
 - A commitment to attend the respective regional conference for a personal interview (The regional organization or state association may provide reimbursement of some expenses);
 - If selected as the regional winner, a commitment to attend the ACTFL Annual Convention (hotel, registration, and transportation are paid by ACTFL); and
 - Willingness to serve as a spokesperson for the profession, based on availability.

- An assortment of portfolio-like documents, which may include:
 - Evidence of the nominee's impact on foreign language programs within the school or district.
 - Evidence of classroom competence (see http://www.flavaweb/files/FLAVA_Awards_CkList2010.pdf)
 - Evidence of service to professional organizations.
 - Evidence of the nominee's influence on students.
 - Special projects, workshops, presentations, curricular developments, techniques, professional service.
 - Evidence of other community service.
 - Evidence of work on school activities and events (foreign language clubs, honor societies, Foreign Language Week), etc.
 - Recognitions, awards and achievements.

Evaluation Sheet
(For Use by Selection Committee)

Name of Nominee _____

Evaluated by _____

Please determine first if the candidate meets the minimum criteria. Then rate the candidate based on quality of materials submitted. Quantity of materials should not take precedence over quality.

Do not be swayed by the numerous listings of things done that are part of the candidate's job, i.e., curriculum development, in-service programs, etc., which are within the jurisdiction of the normal job requirements. The teaching, research and service to the profession should exceed expectations of a job well done.

Basic Criteria:
