

FLAVA Conference 2009
October 9 – October 10
Holiday Inn Select – Koger Conference Center
Richmond, VA

To Producers and Promoters of Foreign Language Educational Materials and Services:

The Foreign Language Association of Virginia extends to you a most cordial invitation to exhibit at our state conference!

Each year we welcome over 600 foreign language educators to our state conference: teachers and supervisors in elementary school through higher education modern and classical languages, ESL, and ASL.

Our large exhibits area is centrally located so that all attendees can easily find and move around your exhibit; sessions are scheduled to provide ample time for participants to visit you and get to know your product or service; and receptions are held in and around the exhibits hall to insure a welcoming atmosphere.

This year we are delighted to offer you an additional opportunity to promote your products or services. In cooperation with The Holiday Inn Select – Koger Conference Center, we have reserved a parlor for your use for private receptions on a first come first service basis. If you are interested in taking advantage of this opportunity, please contact me as soon as possible for availability and price.

Attendees each year tell us on surveys that the exhibits are a very important part of why they attend the annual conference. This year they are looking to see YOU there!

We look forward to seeing you in Richmond in 2009!

Cordially,

Terry
