

Language is core: not just an elective

Dear FLAVA Colleagues,

Mark your calendars for the exciting 2007 FLAVA Conference! Please join our colleagues as we better prepare ourselves to educate the public and our educational institutions that Languages are Core! Let's stop the practice of sacrificing languages to make room for remedial core courses!

The Conference Committee, headed by Sue Robertson, has worked very hard to bring you the best program ever. Get ready for the experience of a lifetime as you are intellectually stimulated by our keynote speaker and workshop presenter: Louis Mangione! Terry Hathaway, Exhibits Chair, invites you to visit our exhibitors and to enjoy the Beads of Life that may be purchased to aid Ugandan women!

I am looking forward to welcoming each of you to the FLAVA Conference!

All the best,
Isi Kessel, FLAVA President
